AUBERGE RESORTS COLLECTION NAMES KEN ISHIGURO VICE PRESIDENT, DESIGN AND CONSTRUCTION

MILL VALLEY, CALIF. (December 04, 2018) – Auberge Resorts Collection, a portfolio of award-winning hotels, resorts and residences, announced that Ken Ishiguro joined the company as Vice President, Design and Construction. A senior hospitality leader with a wealth of luxury hotel design and construction experience, Ishiguro will support the company’s continued growth and expansion across new markets and geographies.

“I am pleased to welcome Ken, a true expert in the hospitality design realm, to the Auberge family,” said Richard Arnold, Chief Development Officer, Auberge Resorts Collection. “His global experience and track record of delivering world-class hotels and resorts reflects our brand’s commitment to creating innovative, well-appointed environments for our guests by supporting our development partners with best-in-class resources.”

Prior to joining Auberge, Ishiguro was Executive Director, Design and Technical Services, Luxury Division at Accor Hotels, where he was responsible for day-to-day design and construction activities for all renovations, conversions and new projects across North and Central America. Before that, he spent five years with Four Seasons Hotels and Resorts, where he managed relationships with owners and developers to successfully deliver luxury projects to market.

Ishiguro holds a Master of Architecture degree from University of California, Berkeley, and a Bachelor of Science in Design degree from Arizona State University.
