DESCRIPTION:	Solage Calistoga is the first resort property from Solage Hotels & Resorts, a brand from Auberge Resorts, creators of Auberge du Soleil, Esperanza, Hotel Jerome, Calistoga Ranch and The Inn at Palmetto Bluff. The 89-room contemporary, cottage-style property located in Napa Valley offers a relaxed approach to the wine country experience. The resort features Solbar, a Michelin-rated bistro with indoor/outdoor dining and take-out service; a 130-foot swimming pool surrounded by cabanas and lounges; children's pool and play area; Spa Solage featuring treatments with a playful twist on Calistoga's spa and mud bath tradition; and complimentary "cruiser" bikes for guests to explore the property.
ARCHITECTURE:	Designed by renowned Napa Valley architect Howard Backen.
INTERIOR DESIGN:	Interiors were designed by San Francisco firm Dowling Kimm Studios, former protégées of Michael Graves. The resort's design interprets the valley's rural heritage in a fresh style described as "Napa barn meets San Francisco loft."
ACCOMMODATIONS:	The resort's 89 spacious rooms and suites – known as "studios" – received a refresh in January 2013 and feature open floor plans, warm color palettes, stone showers with pebble flooring and fresh contemporary furnishings with Jonathan Adler accents. Studios range from 515 to 675 square feet and feature vaulted ceilings and sliding glass doors leading to outdoor private patios with sweeping views of the Palisades and Mayacamas Mountains. All studios include high-tech perks such as complimentary WiFi, flat-screen televisions and iPod docking stations, soaking bathtubs, fireplaces, and special touches such as Italian linens and down bedding. The minibars feature full-sized bottles of spirits and snacks including those from local artisans. The resort also offers six spacious one-bedroom suites featuring a separate bedroom and living room; soaking tub and steam shower; private patio and outdoor Jacuzzi. Guests staying in the suites can enjoy complimentary private poolside cabanas that are wired and stocked with refreshments.

RATES:

Rates range from $350 to $995 per night.

RESORT DINING:

Solbar offers dichotomous menu of fresh, healthful entrees and rich comfort food featuring the seasonal ingredients in an indoor-outdoor setting. With Executive Chef Brandon Sharp at the helm, Solbar has received one coveted Michelin star for four consecutive years, 2010-2013. Spacious outdoor terraces invite guests to dine or relax with drinks by fire pits and bocce courts while taking in views of the nearby mountains and vineyards. In-room, take-out, and poolside service are available.

SPA SOLAGE:

The full-service 20,000 square-foot Spa Solage, which includes both indoor and outdoor space, offers a contemporary alternative to the typical serene spa experience. Guests are invited to step out of their comfort zones and indulge in Spa Solage's signature Mudslide, a series of mud treatments and soaks in geothermal pools. For those who err towards tradition, there are 14 treatment rooms to experience a variety of massages and body treatments, two of which are dedicated to offering Kate Somerville treatments. Kate Somerville, skincare consultant to celebrities such as Jessica Alba, Debra Messing and Molly Sims, has pioneered the field of paramedical esthetics and helped lay the foundation for the medi-spa industry. The spa also features two couples' rooms with outdoor soaking tubs and showers with garden patios and day beds designed for two.

The Spa Solage menu offers a variety of treatments, including the Solage Stone Massage, Lava and Coconut Exfoliation, and a Brightening & Lightening Facial featuring the Auberge Resorts' exclusive partnership with local skincare line Pacific by Marie Veronique Organics. In addition to offering beauty services such as Magic Tan self-tanning, waxing and nail services, Spa Solage features a gym and movement studio for Pilates, yoga and spinning classes. The spa hosts ongoing wellness and alternative health and beauty retreats throughout the year.

ENVIRONMENTAL FOCUS:

Solage Calistoga takes a green approach to pampering its guests and incorporates a variety of environmentally focused practices throughout the resort, from the use of bicycles, electric vehicles, solar panels and environmentally safe cleaning products to locally sourced food, environmentally sustainable landscaping, recycling, and water reclamation.

EVENT FACILITIES:

The resort has a variety of meeting and event spaces and is home to Napa Valley's largest venue, Solstice, which is an event barn with an adjacent patio. The resort also has a garden lawn for events and two private meeting rooms. Meeting spaces accommodate from 10 to 200 people.

PETS:

Solage Calistoga welcomes pets with custom-designed pet beds, organic snacks, pet-friendly rooms and an outdoor pet lawn.

RESORT ACTIVITIES:

During the day, guests can choose from a variety of activities in the gym and movement studio, such as spinning, yoga, Pilates, core training, Boot Camp and cardio boxing classes. Outdoors, guests can enjoy body sculpting aqua classes, water yoga, bocce, or simply relax in the 130-foot swimming pool. Families may enjoy a variety of child-friendly amenities, such as playing by the children's pool, on the kids' hopscotch courts, and in the outdoor play areas.

In the evening, Solbar transforms into an energetic lounge where guests can enjoy live music, cocktails, and food. Solage also offers an in-room game menu featuring a selection of popular board games.

Solage also offers Solage Adventures, which includes a rotating list of organized turnkey activities crafted by the in-the-know staff, for guests who seek a dimensional experience without the hassle of planning themselves.
